BIDDING BEFORE WICKET

TEAM COMPOSITION (MINIMUM REQUIREMENT)

Every team must satisfy the following composition criteria:

- Batsman: Minimum 4
- Bowlers: Minimum 4
- Wicketkeeper: Minimum 1
- All-rounders: Minimum 3

TEAM RATINGS & RANKINGS

- Teams will be evaluated based on their overall team rating.
- In the event that two or more teams have identical ratings, the following tie-breaker will apply:

1. The team with the higher remaining budget after team selection will be ranked above the other.
2. If a tie still persists, the decision of the organizing committee shall be considered final and binding.

ROUND 1: QUIZ ROUND

1. Each team must nominate one representative to participate in the quiz round on behalf of the team.
2. The quiz will test participants on Cricket Knowledge .
3. At the conclusion of the quiz, the Top 10 teams on the leaderboard will qualify for the Final Round.
4. In case of a tie, the organizers may conduct a tie-breaker round or use an alternate method deemed appropriate.

SPECIAL POWERS

To make the auction more strategic and exciting, each team will have access to the following special powers:

JUMP BIDDING POWER

- Each team may use the Jump Bidding Power only once during the entire auction.
- This power allows a team to bypass the standard bidding increments and directly place any higher bid above the current amount.
- Important Conditions
- A team may directly quote any amount higher than the current bid.
- If no other team places a bid after the jump bid, the initiating team will be compulsorily required to purchase the player at the quoted amount.
- The Jump Bidding Power may only be used once by each team.
- Once used, it cannot be revoked, transferred, or reused.

BUDGET BOOST POWER

- To introduce a thrilling element of risk and reward, each team may activate the Budget Boost Power only once during the entire auction.
- A 5-minute break will be provided after every round, during which teams may choose to activate this power.
- How It Works
- The team will be asked one bonus question related to Cricket or General Knowledge.
- If the answer is correct, the team will receive a ₹2 Crore increase in their remaining budget.
- If the answer is incorrect, ₹3 Crore will be deducted from their remaining budget.
- Important Conditions
- This power is designed as a high-risk, high-reward opportunity.
- Teams are advised to use it strategically and only when confident.
- Once a team uses the Budget Boost Power, it cannot be used again under any circumstance.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. All participating teams must report to the venue at half an hour before the scheduled start of the event.
2. Registration is compulsory for all participants.
3. Only registered participants will be allowed to enter the auction and quiz areas.
4. Teams must maintain discipline and sportsmanship throughout the event.
5. Any form of misconduct, unfair practice, or disruption may result in penalties or disqualification.
6. The decisions of the organizers and auction committee shall be final and binding in all matters related to the event.
7. Teams are responsible for managing their budgets and player selections throughout the auction.

VAAD-VIVAD

Vaad-Vivad is a dynamic two-round debate that tests participants' knowledge, critical thinking, communication, rebuttal, diplomacy, and adaptability. The first round follows a parliamentary format, where participants debate a common motion from different perspectives. The second round shifts to an international setting, where participants represent UN member nations, discuss a global agenda, negotiate, and respond to unexpected developments.

ROUND 1 – PARLIAMENTARY SESSION

- A maximum of 40 participants will be selected for Round 1.
- Participants will be assigned to one of the following categories:
- 15 — In Favour
- 15 — Against
- 10 — Journalist
- A common topic will be announced for the parliamentary session.
- Participants are expected to present their views, respond to opposing arguments, and actively contribute to the parliamentary discussion.
- Two judging panels will evaluate participants throughout the session.

INTERVAL & PREPARATION – 30 MINUTES

- The shortlisted 10 participants will receive a 30-minute preparation and research period before Round 2.
- During this period:
- Each participant will be allotted a UN member nation.
- The agenda/topic for Round 2 will be disclosed.
- Participants may research their assigned country's position, interests, policies and relevant information related to the agenda.

ROUND 2 – INTERNATIONAL ASSEMBLY

- All 10 shortlisted participants will participate on a common platform.
- Each participant will represent their assigned UN member nation.
- The round will begin with a 1-minute opening statement by each participant, introducing themselves, their country and their country's position on the given agenda.

- This will be followed by a pannel discussion, during which participants may present their arguments, question other countries, respond to opposing views and negotiate their positions.
- During the discussion, an unexpected development will be introduced, requiring participants to think critically and adapt to the changing situation.
- The round will conclude with a 1-minute closing statement from each participant.

JUDGING CRITERIA

- The two judging panels will evaluate participants on their overall performance, including:
- Content & Knowledge
- Argumentation
- Critical Thinking
- Rebuttal & Diplomacy
- Adaptability
- Participation
- Communication & Overall Performance
- The final winners will be determined on the basis of their overall performance throughout both rounds, with particular emphasis on their reasoning, participation, quality of discussion and ability to respond effectively to new developments.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

- Mobile phones and other technological devices will be permitted during the rounds but authentic proofs for every statement will be required
- Participants are expected to maintain discipline, respect and parliamentary decorum throughout the event.
- Participants should remain relevant to the given topic and respect the time limits set by the coordinators.
- Any form of personal attack, disrespectful behaviour or deliberate disruption will not be encouraged.
- The organising team reserves the right to make necessary changes or modifications to the format, schedule or rules, if required for the smooth conduct of the event. Participants will be informed of any such changes by the Vaad-Vivad Coordinating Team, JKLU, at the earliest possible opportunity.
